Call for Papers

Dear colleagues,

The Leibniz Institute for Financial Research SAFE organizes and cordially invites you to submit a paper to the

8th SAFE Household Finance Workshop

to be held on 11-12 July 2024
at Dolce Hotel & Resort, Bad Nauheim
(Elvis-Presley-Platz 1, 61231 Bad Nauheim)

Please send the paper to dimitrova@safe-frankfurt.de
Deadline: 30 March 2024

The idea of the workshop is to strengthen our community and to provide a platform to discuss ongoing research in the area.

The keynote speech will be given by Marina Niessner (Indiana University).

We encourage submissions from junior researchers. The majority of slots on the program will be given to untenured scholars. Papers that are at an early stage (but completed) will receive priority. Please do not submit a paper that has been accepted or close to being accepted for publication in a journal.

Best Paper by Young Researchers (€2,000) sponsored by the Behavioral Finance e.V.

For the first time, the Behavioural Finance Association will award the best paper accepted for the workshop submitted by a young researcher. The winning paper will be selected by the program committee. A 'young researcher' is defined as either a PhD student, or a scholar or professor who has completed their doctoral degree no more than five years prior to the workshop.

Dates and Venue:

The 2-day long workshop will be held from Thursday, 11 July, to Friday, 12 July, 2024 at Dolce Hotel & Resort, Bad Nauheim (40 km distance to Frankfurt am Main)

Given that the nature of this workshop is to strengthen the network, we do not plan to hold this conference in a virtual or hybrid format.

Local organizer:

Christine Laudенbach (Leibniz Institute SAFE)
